Applicants were selected to the 2013 Training Outsourcing Companies Watch List based on the following criteria:

- Innovative service offerings
- Ability to provide services on a global basis
- Unique and proven approach to Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) solutions
- Quality of client served

“The 2013 Watch List includes a select group of companies poised to capture market share in the training outsourcing space,” said Ken Taylor, Chief Operating Officer, TrainingIndustry.com. “Each of these companies provides innovative solutions to a variety of global clients, enabling them to increase their reach – and revenue – year over year.”

“This year’s Training Outsourcing Watch List recognizes eight companies that have developed distinctive and proven BPO solutions,” said Doug Harward, Chief Executive Officer, TrainingIndustry.com. “Their extensive range of capabilities and impressive client lists ensure that they will be sharp competitors in the expanding training outsourcing market.”
